Dear Friends and Supporters,

The Board of Lutheran Services New York Alliance announces that The Rev. John W. Havrilla has joined Lutheran Services New York Alliance as Executive Director. Pastor Havrilla has been a member of the Alliance for over ten years and was a board member of United Lutheran Appeal, the predecessor of Lutheran Services New York Alliance. Pastor Havrilla's work will include responsibility for stewardship of the organization's financial resources, strategic direction of the agency and executive administration functions. The Alliance looks forward to working with our new Executive Director, ensuring its ongoing commitment to mission in the context of a changing and challenging environment.

A consortium of nine social ministry organizations serving in the wider New York metropolitan area, the Alliance is committed to supporting one another in furthering the church's servant mission. The Alliance ministries include healing of body, mind, and spirit; providing shelter, food and clothing; and caring for the special needs of the young, old, infirm, orphaned and sojourner. Lutheran Services New York Alliance sponsors a Clinical Pastoral Education (chaplancy) program as a distinguishing hallmark of its commitment to people in need served by the Alliance member agencies.

Lutheran Services New York Alliance looks forward to advancing the church's work in social-service ministry and pastoral-spiritual care. Pastor Havrilla is eager to speak with individuals as well as groups interested in learning about the Alliance's varied work. For information about the chaplancy training program, visit lsnya-cpe.org. To contact our Executive Director, call 845-596-5649 or email jw.lsnya@gmail.com.

Supporting one another to further the church's mission,

Ronald S. Drews, Board Chairperson
